TEMPERANCE PEOPLE

W. C. T. U. Day Marked the Opening of the Woman's Congress.

MONTEAGLE, Tenn., Aug. 2.—The Woman's Congress at Monteagle opened this morning with a splendid W. C. T. U. program, and Mrs. Selma Holman, State President, in the chair. Mrs. M. B. Pilcher welcomed the ladies to Monteagle, and after prayer by Mrs. Ransom, of Nashville, Miss Gustafson sang "I'm a Pilgrim." Miss Jennie Blanton, of Lebanon, who has won three of the medals in oratory offered by the association, gave a temperance selection, "Old Soap." The evangelistic service was conducted by Mrs. Leila O. Stratton, State Vice President and State Superintendent of Evangelistic Work. Miss McDonald, of Shelbyville, gave a solo with violin obligato, and Mrs. Leida G. Ransome, of Nashville, recited the story of Jean Valjean and the Bishop, from "Les Miserables." Miss Clara C. Baer, of Louisiana, spoke of "Physical Culture and its Relation to the W. C. T. U.," giving practical illustrations of correct breathing and rest exercises. Miss Lillian M. Phelps, of St. Catherine, Ontario, one of the most eloquent W. C. T. U. platform speakers and widely known, both in England and America, delivered the address of the day on "The New Genesis." Miss Phelps made a very scholarly, logical and powerful plea for temperance. The afternoon was spent by the ladies in visiting places of interest on the mountain, with a conference and prayer service at Cooley's Rift, overlooking the valley.

KELLY'S FERRY.

Special to the News.

Thursday and Friday were road working days in our vicinity. As the men are so well pleased with their overseer on the road we will have to praise him. W. M. McNabb is the first man in our vicinity who has done his duty on the road. He took all his men to the Ferry and began work at the water and made a good road. He graded the road up the river banks and he works as hard as any of his men. He don't sit on the stones and stumps and boss. He works. That is the way he does. He is a man who wants friends and not enemies. Mr. McNabb is liked by all and all of the men like to work for him.

Mr. Charlie Way, of St. Elmo, was the guest of Mart Hartman Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Newsome, of Roper, are visiting on the river from Thursday until Sunday and enjoyed themselves.

MITCHELL MAY RESIGN.

Mine Workers' President Says His Work Too Arduous.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 6.—A special from Wilkesbarre, Pa., to the Public Ledger says:

The rumor is revived that President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, will soon tender his resignation. In his address last night, he said: "I may not long be with you in this great movement. This night and day work is too much. The nervous and physical strain of continual effort is more than mortal man can stand."

Many of Mitchell's followers see his resignation in his latest utterance.

President Mitchell and his attorney, James L. Lenahan, had a conference in this city regarding the coming trial at Binghamton in September. Attorney Wales, of that city, wants $200,000 from the miners' union for suggesting to Mr. Mitchell how to settle the strike in 1902. The conclusion was reached to fight the case to the bitter end.

GOOD PROGRESS ON TUNNEL

Work Going on at a Much More Rapid Rate Than People Generally Suppose.

The work on the Southern railway's new tunnel is progressing at a much more rapid rate than it is supposed by many. Although the laborers are not under the mountain to any great extent, the work on the approaches has been steady and constant and it will only be a short time until the big air compressor is started and then rapid progress will be made. Considerable time has been taken in the erection of a trestle over the N. C. & St. L. railway tracks at the west end of the tunnel. The west end of the big hole will come out on top of a high bluff which is about forty feet over the Nashville road's track. According to the survey the track will leave the tunnel and shoot out across the Nashville road on a high trestle and then go on a high long fill.

All the material for this fill will be taken out of the mountain and in order to get it across the Nashville tracks a wide bridge had to be erected which will be much wider than a trestle and upon which there will be one or two tracks laid for tram cars.

This bridge has been completed and as soon as the approach to the tunnel from the end of the bridge is completed, the work of excavation will begin. At the other end of the tunnel another large job has just been completed. The entrance to the tunnel at this end is hardly 200 feet away from the Chattanooga creek. Another trestle will have to be erected here. The contractors will erect a permanent structure at this end of the tunnel and already the foundation for the steel work has commenced. The bridge will be rather small, but will be substantially constructed.

There are now between 150 and 200 men employed.—Chattanooga Times.

PETROS, TENN.

Special to the News.

News is scarce here this week. Ye writer has been sick all the week and has not been able to get out to find out much.

There is not as good health here as has been. There are several cases of sickness.

I was glad to read the News but was sorry to read of the death of Mrs. John Porter, for John is a good man and had a good wife. May John put his trust in One who is able and willing to help him in time of trouble and may God bless them all.

I saw some good pieces in the News last week. I like to read Joe Hackworth's pieces from Texas, for he can write a good piece and he knows what Union is.

We are having some fine weather up here amongst the old East Tennessee hills and mountains. We are having nice showers and good breezes and it is not as hot as it has been.

It will not be long until Autumn will put on her coat of brown and we can hear the winds whistling around the corner of the house, saying that winter is near.

Work here is very good. The mines are running fine and we have work five days a week and that is as much as most of the men want.

Work on the Bank building is progressing finely and they will soon have it done and it will add a great deal to the little town of Petros.

They are shipping a lot of coal and coke from this place and the Prison mines. They are running trains night and day to haul the coal and coke.

Next week is the time for the convention in Knoxville to meet. The men and operators will settle for another year and I don't think there will be any trouble this time for we have a good man to settle with. He is always ready to do right with his men and I don't think there will be any trouble here.

I would like to see Whitwell settle and go to work with union and I don't think it will be long until we hear of them being ready to go to work. I want to see the boys all stand firm until the settlement is made.

I would like to hear from some more of the boys at Pittsburg, Ga., and Illinois. Come on, all ye writers and let us hear from you. Union Man.

NO CHANGE OF WAGES FOR MONTH OF AUGUST

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 4.—The wages of coal miners belonging to the union will remain at 55 cents per ton during the month of August. An inspection of iron prices was made by the committee on yesterday and it was announced today that the average iron price obtained last month did not warrant any change in the mining wage. The maximum wage is 57 cents per ton.

MUSIC AT MONTEAGLE

Great Crowd Heard the Grand Concert Saturday Night.

MONTEAGLE, Tenn., Aug. 6.—Saturday being Mrs. Thomas' day, was one of the biggest of the Monteagle Assembly, inaugurating one of the greatest festivals ever held on the mountain. Special trains from different places brought large crowds and standing room could be secured only with difficulty in the auditorium on Saturday night. Under the direction of Douglas Powell, of Nashville, a chorus of more than a hundred trained voices from Nashville and an orchestra of thirty pieces took part with the following soloists: Miss Corinne Bailey, of New Orleans; Miss Gustafson, one of the sweetest of contraltos; John J. Bergen, of Memphis; Samuel P. Brown and John Biller, and Miss Helen Rion, of Nashville.

One of the features of the evening was the "Toreador Song," given by Douglas Powell in his rich baritone voice. The termination of the festival came Sunday night when Handel's "Messiah" was given. No greater music has ever been heard at Monteagle, the chorus reminding one of the great cathedrals in the old country.

The grand success was due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Powell, the director. He left nothing undone to insure its success and those who attended can attest to the reward of his work.—Nashville American.

DOANS, TEXAS.

Special to the News.

Well, as we are having a nice bright, sunny day, I will try to give you a few items from Texas, although I feel a little dull from eating a big bait of cabbage, parsnips and okra. Some may tell you that cabbage won't grow in Wilberger Co. but just come to my old place one mile south of Doans and I will show you cabbage heads that won't go in a cedar water bucket, and water melons that will weigh 70 lbs. and as fine cotton and corn as you ever saw. In fact we have the best crop I ever saw grown in Wilberger Co. Cabbage will not grow, neither will corn or cotton, unless planted and cultivated.

We are having some fine rains now. It rained every day last week.

I didn't get my paper until Friday on account of high water and you bet I was getting anxious to see the good Old Reliable.

Well, I fear Bill Dooley, Hardscrabble, Peter Haunch and Scramble-harder are all like Watchman's turtle. I would suggest some of their neighbors see after them. Noticed sometime ago Watchman asked for verse and chapter in the New Testament for the authority of teaching Sunday school. Then later on he said when boys had been rightly taught in Sunday school that they were seldom found in courts.

Now, Bro. Watchman, when you get those little boys in your Sunday school what do you and your brother teachers attempt to teach the little fellows?

And, again, have you ever seen in print where it gave the number of those who are inmates of your State prison, and seen what per cent. had been Sunday school teachers and also what per cent. had been Sunday school students? Brother, if you have never seen this in type you ought to look up the matter, and guess you would be surprised.

Some cattle are dying of fever but the health of the people is excellent.

Don't see why we can't have some news from Cedar Spring. Would be glad to hear from that old place as it used to be my old stamping ground.

A home of the brave and land of the free in the good old state of Tennessee, where we always had plenty of flies, chinos, ticks and fleas. Oh, must tell you of its fame I while would be afraid of starving to death on a little mountain claim. All who wish to get hold of a farm where you can live off the farm could do no better than to call and see J. W. Coffee, at Doans, before locating. He is prepared to see you a home on your own terms.

Good will to the News.

Joe Hackworth.

A Touching Story

is the saving from death of the baby girl of Geo. A. Eyer, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health with serious throat trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At all druggists; 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

LAND'S CHAPEL.

Special to the News.

We have been having some very hot weather out here for the past week.

Rain is greatly needed now but I believe the love of God in needed more than rain. If we all were full of the love of God and lived faithful lives the Lord would always give us what we asked for. There is not enough of pure-hearted Christians in this world to make everything go on all right. Christian friends let us strive harder and harder every day to live the life that God would have us to live. We cannot do too much for our Lord and neither can we do anything to please God unless we have his love within us and his holy spirit to guide us in the ways of all truth and righteousness.

Let us all come to the Lord with pure, earnest hearts and ask him for his guiding spirit to lead us in the way that we should go, that we may not be led astray by the wicked servant, but always be lead by the spirit of God that leads none astray, but to that far away home.

There has been a great deal of good accomplished in this community by our prayer meetings that we are trying to carry on in the name of Jesus, our Saviour. The spirit of God has rested very heavily upon some people at this place, while there are others who greatly need the spirit of God in their souls. I am so glad to say that Johnnie Land has turned to the Father on high. Christians, I ask the prayers of all for the people here. Let us be up and doing for the Master while life is given us on earth, for the time cometh when no one can work. According to the word of God we have no promise of a long life. Let us be ready at any time to meet the Lord in sweet peace.
